Additional courses to be taken:

Course Code	Course Name	Course Credit

* The student has to succeed in the written exam for entering the oral exam.

 According to Graduate School's Regulation, in order for the student to be held successful, s/he has to receive from both written and oral exams a minimum grade of 75/100 by at least three out of five jury members.

 Based on the Council of Higher Education's Graduate Studies Regulation (April, 20, 2016) "The Qualification Exam Jury may ask a student who is found to be successful in the qualification exam to take additional course(s) in a way not to exceed one third of the total course credit load. The student has to succeed in those courses added by the decision of the Graduate School." Additional courses are included in the transcript, but not calculated in CGPA.

The Qualification Exam Jury has to submit BOTH this form and the ORAL QUALIFICATION EXAM REPORT to the Graduate School of Social Sciences (The required forms are the following: A-3; A-4; A-4 Supplement).
